

Capacity-building for Enterprises in Kaliningrad

The education programme for local enterprises is declining the negative environmental impact of industries and increasing sustainability of the region. The curriculum that includes environmental issues and waste management is being continuously developed with the goal of starting up EMS in the companies.

Problems addressed – low level of awareness of environmental issues among companies in Kaliningrad

Goals – to decline the negative environmental impact of industries

Activities – education on environmental protection and waste management to local enterprises and their personnel responsible for environmental damage, 200 persons were educated during 2002

Innovation – totally new activity in Kaliningrad region, developed in creative and flexible way to suit the needs of different participants

Environmental impact – improved knowledge of legal requirements, new technologies and environmental management in companies

Actors – ECAT-Kaliningrad, experts, businesses

Schedule - started in September 2002, on-going

Funding – funded by fees of 100 eur for one week course.

Contact info – Evgeniya Ilina, ECAT-Kaliningrad (Kaliningrad City), ecatk@rol.ru

Candidate for the UBC Environmental Award 2003