

ABCD (ARS BALTICA Creative Dialogue) [1]

ABCD (ARS BALTICA Creative Dialogue) intends to gather creative and cultural practitioners in all Baltic Sea Region countries, provide space for discussion in an open environment and create synergies for and with the participating partners.

The project started in early 2018 and held meetings in every BSR region country with the aim of collaborating with regional creative and cultural influencers and practitioners with a shared purpose.

The meetings offer opportunities for discussion and knowledge exchange, to further develop each country's commitment to sustainable strategic planning for the future.

The ABCD platform aims to build on the common value that culture is the foundation for true sustainable growth from economic, ecologic and community perspectives. The platform will enable cultural practitioners to exchange ideas and innovations, collaborate and discuss shared issues and reflect together on local and international challenges. The ABCD will also allow policy-makers to follow the debates and share their perspectives. For the first implementation phase the project has received funding from the CBSS Project Support Facility [2].

ARS Baltica is the lead partner on the platform, along with six co-partners which include:
